

Care homes for adults

This leaflet provides details of residential and nursing homes available to adults with care and support needs living in the Wandsworth area.

Residential and nursing homes for adults in the Wandsworth area

Types of care home available

■ Care home without nursing (Residential Homes)

Residential care homes provide accommodation for people on either a long or short term basis. They provide help with personal care such as washing, dressing, feeding, and toileting.

■ Care home with nursing (Nursing Homes)

Nursing care homes are similar to residential care homes but they also have registered nurses on duty at all times who can provide care for more complex health needs.

Regulation and inspection

Care Quality Commission (CQC)

All homes have to be registered with, and are regulated by, an organisation called the Care Quality Commission. The CQC inspects the homes to make sure they are meeting the standards they set.

To read the latest performance report for each care home, go to www.cqc.org.uk

The inclusion of care homes in this leaflet is not an endorsement and we take no responsibility for the quality of services that are privately purchased from the homes listed.

What if I'm unhappy with the service I receive?

If you've experienced or seen poor care, you have the right to feedback or complain to the care home directly or you can contact our Quality Assurance and Contract Monitoring Team to discuss your concerns. The team will register your concern and investigate your concern with the care home. They will try to resolve your problem and tell you what will happen as a result.

What to expect from good carers in a care home

- Your care workers should have the right skills to meet your needs.
- They should be able to support you, for example if you have dementia, sight or hearing impairment or need help coping with bereavement.
- Care workers should have the skills needed to make sure you are safe and feel safe.
- You should feel comfortable around your care workers and be able to talk to them openly.
- Care workers should get to know you and be familiar with your needs including how you like to communicate, your likes and dislikes.
- Your care worker should respect your cultural and religious values (regarding food, for example) and make sure that your needs are met.
- They should have an understanding of your health, medicines and pain management as appropriate.
- If appropriate provide skin care and other support to help you stay well.
- Care workers also know your wishes for your care at the end of life, if this applies.
