8	Friends of Furzedown Rec	Friends of Furzedown Rec Community Group	The Friends Group (FoFr) is formed by very busy working families that love this greenspace and want to collaborate in protecting and promoting it through the local community. Following the recent refurbishment of the Furzedown Pavillion, the FoFr would like to expand their work and connect with more local people through a series of 3 community events in the Gardens which will involve residents, local groups, schools and businesses, to inspire pride in the gardens and a feeling of community in the area. The events planned are: an Easter Egg Hunt, a Summer celebration event and an Autumn picnic/Halloween event.	Furzedown	CIT/ENV	£	775.00
10	Nicholas Stewart Project & Mindworks UK	Funday on the Henry Prince Estate	Through the provision of a Funday on the Henry Prince Estate, the Project and its partners are aiming to encourage personal responsibility and active citizenship to promote self-reliant, supportive and cohesive communities. A wide range of local organisations are supporting the day. Activities aim to encourage residents to volunteer, gain skills and learn the importance of being a team. A talk from a former gang member that has turned his life around will be followed by a discussion about issues on the estate. The organisers also aim to provide an opportunity to bring people together to discuss their thoughts and ideas on how their environment can be improved, facilitated by a group session.	Earlsfield	CIT	£	1,000.00
13	The Wiser Collective	The Wiser Collective Monthly Skillshare	The Wiser Collective is a local community initiative connecting families and older people who live near each other through events, meetups and online groups. They aim to provide a network for neighbours of different generations to share skills and build friendships. This new project will run a series of six events at Balham Library hall providing residents to meet to discuss shared interests, skills and knowledge e.g. knitting, sewing, gardening, cooking, history, reading, language and technology skills. Alongside participating in the activity, anyone who wishes to connect with a participant outside of the monthly events will be encouraged to do so via The Wiser Collective to ensure personal details are not shared between individuals at the events and safeguarding guidelines can be followed. 14	Theatre 503	The 503 Panto	Theatre503 is supporting two female writer-performers, Louise Beresford and Anna Spearpoint, to create and perform an entirely original, family friendly pantomime. It is the only all-female panto in the world. The story will draw on the traditional elements of a Christmas show, as well as exploring what happens to characters after happy ever after. The project provides an opportunity for nine talented emerging female artists to develop an outstanding piece of work that will benefit their own professional development and the audience who see it – in particular inspiring young girls. Additionally, the project will provide a chance for another 65 artists to take part in a first comedy specific Rapid Write Response (RWR). RWR involves around 30 writers taking up the challenge of writing a 10-minute response to a show. Seven are selected to be rehearsed and performed on stage by 35 directors and actors. It is the first time the writers will have had any work performed publicly. We intend to ensure the make-up of between 20-30% of the writers, performers and directors are Wandsworth residents and/or beneficiaries of our local Right to Write and Five-O-Fresh young people's projects.	Latchmere	ARTS	£	4,995.00
15	Time to Shine Kids	Learning with Horses	The charity provides equine assisted learning and therapeutic activities to vulnerable children and young people (CYP) and their families. This aims to support their emotional well-being, develop resilience, and increase their capacity to access education and employment through the completion of specific equine tasks. This project seeks to provide places for 9-12 young people from Sacred Heart Primary school and perhaps other local schools with two six-week long programmes focussing on developing self and emotional awareness, building self-esteem and resilience and emotion regulation.	Roehampton and Putney Vale	CYP/HWB	£	5,260.00
16	Wandsworth Sea Cadets	Upgrade of water-borne equipment and expand canoeing activity	Wandsworth Sea Cadets is a uniformed group requiring provision and replacement of equipment. The Unit caters for boys and girls of all abilities and backgrounds aged 11-18 years from across the borough and further afield. The Unit is currently working with Wandsworth Early Help to increase their outreach activities. It specialises in tidal water for which they require an upgrade to some of the equipment. This includes: replacing the ship-to shore boat, replacement of the fleet of canoes and auxiliary equipment, replacing a small storage box to the pontoon and replacing the lino flooring in the cadets' changing room.
